ATTRACTIONS AND EXHIBITS

■ NAVAL AVIATION MEMORIAL IMAX® THEATRE

Enjoy stadium-style seating and a seven-story tall screen at one of Florida's largest IMAX® Theatres. Shows begin at 10 a.m., and the final show starts at 4 p.m. Visit the IMAX® ticket counter, located near the front entrance, for details.

■ NC-4

The NC-4 Flying Boat is the actual aircraft that completed the first crossing of the Atlantic Ocean by air and is one of the sparks of the aerial revolution.

■ FREE GUIDED MUSEUM TOURS

Relive special moments in American and world history right here at the National Naval Aviation Museum. The Museum offers free guided tours of the first floor exhibits and outside flightline. Visit the information desk for details.

■ FLIGHT DECK STORE

Visit the official store of the National Naval Aviation Museum where you can purchase gifts, toys, clothes and souvenirs to remember your visit. Hours are 9:30 a.m.–5 p.m.

■ CUBI BAR CAFÉ

The Cubi Bar Café is rich in history and offers a variety of soups, salads and sandwiches and features fresh-baked bread and homemade cookies. Open 10:30 a.m.–3:30 p.m.

■ WWI

The World War I exhibit portrays Naval Aviation's role overseas in WWI and includes a Curtiss MF Flying Boat, a Nieuport Fighter, a JN-4 Jenny and a Dodge Ambulance.

■ P.O.W. EXHIBIT

This dramatic recreation of the Hoa Lo Prison gives visitors a never before seen look of a real Vietnam P.O.W. camp. See actual P.O.W. garments, letters written to fathers from their children back home in the United States and much more.

■ SUNKEN TREASURE

A stunning underwater recreation below the surface of Lake Michigan, refracted light bounces over two WWII aircraft lost by young Naval aviators during carrier training at the height of the war.

■ THE EMIL BUEHLER NAVAL AVIATION LIBRARY

See one of a kind artwork and peruse manuscripts, 8,000 books and technical manuals, and 400,000 declassified Naval Aviation photos. Open Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.–4 p.m.

■ USS CABOT FLIGHT DECK

Have you ever wondered what a wooden flight deck looked like? See our WWII aircraft carrier replica, the USS Cabot, up close. The flight deck is made from planks taken from the USS Lexington.

■ TOP GUN AIR COMBAT SIMULATORS

Test your flying skills inside the cockpit of a Navy F-14 Tomcat simulator. Climb in, close the canopy, and take off! Land on an aircraft carrier, engage in a dog fight and much more! Your experience includes a pre-flight briefing and 20 exciting minutes at the controls.

SECOND DECK

■ SPACE

Walk with the astronauts. See the Apollo command module, Skylab 2, that carried an all-Navy crew to the Earth-orbiting Skylab.

■ FLIGHT SIMULATORS

Experience the thrilling new HD-3D flight simulators located near the cockpit trainers and don't miss the motion-based simulator and fly with the Blue Angels!

■ WWII SOUTH PACIFIC

Relive the rustic lifestyle of Naval Aviators based at jungle airstrips. This exhibit will take you back in time.

■ ART GALLERY

Gaze upon the Museum's collection of some of the world's finest aviation art.

■ WWII AIRCRAFT CARRIER

If you ever wanted to know how sailors survived carrier life, you'll want to visit this realistic exhibit.

■ LIGHTER THAN AIR

See another realm of flight with dirigibles used as airborne versions of aircraft carriers that could launch, recover and hangar aircraft while airborne by means of a retractable trapeze.

■ FLIGHT ADVENTURE DECK

Visit a hands-on display on the principles of flight. Open by guided tour only. Stop by the information desk on the Main Deck for more information.

■ COCKPIT TRAINERS

Ever wondered what it looks like inside an aircraft cockpit? Here you'll find cockpit trainers such as the A-7 Corsair II, the F-8 Crusader and many more. Climb inside and pretend you're flying.

■ HOME FRONT USA

Home Front USA captures small-town life as it was for those at home during WWII.
