Hickory Walnut Campground

Hickory Walnut Campground is comprised of two big loops; Hickory and Walnut, and one smaller loop named Oak.

Walnut - $22.00 per night (50 amp electrical, water & sewer hookups)/$18.00 per night (electrical & water hookups)/$16.00 per night (electrical hookup)/$12.00 per night (non-electric)/$10.00 per night (Oak Loop). This campground is open May 1 through September 30 and has 97 campsites. 5 sites are used by volunteers and contractors, so there are 42 sites with electrical hookups (10 of these have water hookups) and 50 without hookups. Walnut campground has two conveniently located comfort stations and shares a playground and a shower building/laundry facility with Hickory campground. Oak Loop, somewhat separated from the Walnut campground, has 22 sites, all non-electric. Oak Loop has one vault toilet and two water hydrants. Campers from Oak Loop can drive approximately one mile to the Hickory/Walnut shower/laundry facility.

Hickory - $20.00 per night (50 amp electrical & water hookups)/$18.00 per night (electrical & water hookups)/$16.00 per night (electrical -hookup)/$12.00 per night (non-electric). This campground is open May 1 through September 30 and has 101 campsites. 4 of the sites are used by volunteers and contractors, so there are 50 sites with electrical hookups (6 of these have water hookups) and 47 without hookups. Hickory campground has 2 conveniently located comfort stations, and shares a shower building/laundry facility and playground with Walnut campground. The Hickory, Walnut and Cedar Ridge campgrounds share the centrally located historic stone smokehouse amphitheater where evening programs are presented on many Saturdays, May through September.
