
SOUTH DAKOTA
Air & Space
MUSEUM

SOUTH DAKOTA
Air & Space
MUSEUM

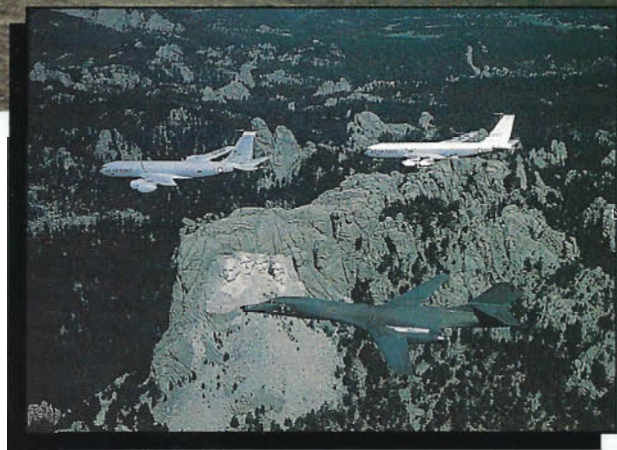

Free Admission
Donations Accepted

Located 7 miles east of Rapid City . Take I-90, exit 66 then ¾ mile north to our parking lot outside Ellsworth AFB's main gate.

Open 7 days a week, year round. Hours 8:30 a.m. to 6:00 p. m. mid-May to mid-September. Winter hours 8:30 to 4:30

(605) 385-5188

Ellsworth Heritage Foundation
PO Box 871
Box Elder SD 57719-0871
(605) 385-5189

I-90 Exit 66, 7 Miles East of Rapid City, South Dakota

Located next to Ellsworth AFB with direct access and always free

SOUTH DAKOTA'S ONLY AIR & SPACE MUSEUM...

A unique opportunity to view aviation history as you stroll among the 28 aircraft and missiles on display.

ADMISSION IS ALWAYS FREE

You can walk around General Eisenhower's personal B-25 transport from World War II, see a Minuteman II Missile Launch Control Center and experience what life was like for missile crews, and learn how mankind took the first tentative steps toward the stars!

DISPLAYS INCLUDE

A-7D "Corsair II"	F-101 "Voodoo"
B-25 "Mitchell"	F-102 "Delta Dagger"*
B-26 "Invader"	F-105 "Thud"
B-29 "Superfortress"	FB-111 "Aardvark"
B-47 "Stratojet"*	H-13 Helicopter
B-52D "Stratofortress"	L-5 "Sentinel"
EB-57B "Canberra"	O-2A Forward Air Control Aircraft
BT-13 "Valiant"	T-33 "Shooting Star"
C-45 "Expeditor"	T-38 "Talon"
C-47 "Gooney Bird"	U-3 "Blue Canoe"
C-54 "Skymaster"	U-8 "Seminole"
C-131 "Samaritan"	UH-1 "Iroquois"
EC-135 "Stratotanker"	Nike-Ajax missile
F-84 "Thunderstreak"	Minuteman II Missile
F-86 "Sabre"	Titan I Missile

* - In Restoration

Hands on displays of aircraft systems, opportunities to see Minuteman Ballistic Missile silo operations, and many other exciting exhibits are beckoning you to stop and see them.

With indoor and outdoor exhibits there are always fascinating displays to spark the imagination.